ues have been listed for this semi-annual event. Dollar Days will attract not only Salem people but persons from a large surrounding territory which has come to look upon Salem as the central buying point. Shopping in Salem Friday and Saturday will be particularly advantageous, due to the fact that at this time of the year merchants are able to offer merchandise at far greater savings to the public than at the rush periods of the year. Spring is just around the corner, and new spring merchandise which now is rapidly filling the shelves of the Salem stores is particularly appealing.

* COMING STARS of the MOVIES * Ethlyne Clair

THE PERFECT movie type is the verdict that a number of prominent screen experts have rendered in the case of Ethlyne Clair, 18-year-old Southern beauty who has attracted wide attention in Hollywood, although she has been in pictures but a comparatively short time.

Ethlyne was born in Talladoga, Ala., and raised in Atlanta. She studied drawing and painting in the National Academy of Fine Arts in Washington, but gave up that work to take a minor role in a photoplay starring the late Barbara LaMarr.

After her beauty was seen on the screen, she didn't suffer from lack of engagements. George Archinbaud, noted director, has gone on record as saying that she "has every photographic quality in
